PUBLIC DISPESPECT TO FLAG CENSURED BY LEGION POST

POLICE OFFICERS, CIVILIAN INDIFFERENCE AROUSE VETERANS' ORGANIZATION

Failure of traffic and police officers in uniform to show proper respect to the Flag of our Country at public celebrations, particularly at Fourth of July parades, aroused the ire of the members of Washington Township Post, American Legion at their meeting held in Niles Wednesday night of last week.

One veteran reported that traffic patrolmen at a Fourth of July parade in Hayward neither faced the flags as they passed by, nor paid any attention to them. He said he politely asked a civilian to remove his hat as the flag passed by. When the civilian refused the veteran none-too-gently removed the civilian's hat.

Another veteran stated that during the July Fourth parade in Pleasanton many men and women remained seated on the curbstones as the flags passed by.

By vote of the membership Adjutant Frank Veit was instructed to write the director of the State Highway Patrol requesting that traffic officers in uniform be instructed to face and salute the flag as is passes by at public ceremonies thus to suggest to civilians their proper conduct on such occasions.

Other matters transacted at the meeting included election of delegates and alternates to the state convention to be held in Sacramento in August, with the following results: delegates: Vice-Commander Sam Scott, Adjutant Veit, Past Commanders Jack Vieux and George Smith. Alternates: Comrades Arthur Cotton, John Amaral, M. F. Swartz and J. S. Furtado.

It was announced that a trophy case is being built (to house Smith's golf trophies), and a stand for A. E. F. trophies, by Jim Clifford, without expense to the Post. Picture frames may also be had for the past commanders' pictures when such pictures are taken.

— Rules Stated

Rules governing a Legionaire's respect to the flag were quoted from a recent issue of the national publication by a member, as follows:

Legion men in uniform face the flag and stand at salute until the colors have passed. Legion men wearing no distinguishing insignia are civilians, so they face the flag and uncover, if wearing a hat. but do not salute. If they are bareheaded they simply stand at attention.

Civilian men wearing hats should uncover and hold their hats over their hearts. Civilan men who are bareheaded should stand and face the flag respectfully. Women and children the same.

Fighting for a New Europe

Among the most dramatic of the fighting forces of the Allies are the colorful Anzacs whose valor in battle, good humor and fellowship with their Allies, and strength under the most trying fighting conditions are legendary. Fighting side-by-side with the countries of occupied but unconquered Europe, and the sister nations of the British Commonwealth, the Allies are massed in great strength. Their recruits are drawn from those escaping daily from Europe, while the Anzacs travel the world around to lend their physical and moral aid.

SACRAMENTO — A 55 percent decrease in the number of claims for unemployment insurance filed last week compared to the same week a year ago, a 36 percent drop in the total number of checks written and a 37 percent decrease in the total amount paid to claimants, today gave further evedence that employment throughout the ants is on the upswing.

NEWARK FIREMEN QUELL GRASS FIRE

NEWARK — The Newark Fire Department was called out Monday evening to extinguish a grass fire near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Alberts on Mulberry street. No damage was done and through the effort of the department the garage of Tony Silva, a neighbor was saved.

The funny part of this call was that the fire truck was only two blocks from the fire at the time fixing the banner for their dance in front of the Newark Pavilion, and did not know the fire was so close until they saw the smoke. At the fire house the remaining firemen took the old truck out, as they thought the other firemen might not locate the fire.

PRESIDENT SIGNS BILLS CONTINUING FHA LOAN PROGRAMS

Continuation of the entire FHA better housing program was assured when President Roosevelt signed the bill recently passed by Congress amending the National Housing Act by extending certain phases of the plan slated to expire the first of July.

New legislation provides for the extension of Title One, the property improvement credit plan, for two years to July 1, 1943.

The maximum loan limit of $2500 to finance modernization and repairs is unchanged in the case of single family homes and commercial buildings. However, for dwellings designed for more than one family, or to be converted into multiple family units, the limit has been increased to $5000.

Loans insured for more than $2500 may be written for as long as five years, while those for lesser amounts remain at the former maximum repayment period of three years.

The bill also increases the insurance reserve for Title One loans from $100,000,000 to 165,000,000.

Under Title Two, the FHA insured mortgage system, the new leg islation extends for three years, to July 1, 1944, authority to insure mortgages on existing dwellings. It also authorizes an increase from four to five billion dollars the mortgage insurance limitation under Title Two, subject to the President's order.

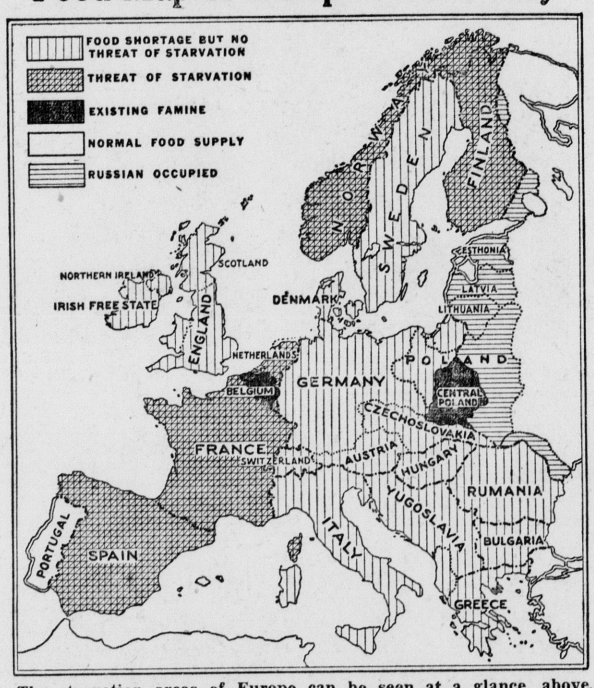
Food Map of Europe as of Today



The starvation areas of Europe can be seen at a glance, above. This map will now darken from month to month as, in many countries, the last remaining food stocks reach exhaustion.

New York (Special) — All Europe is on short rations. Only tiny Portugal still commands a normal food supply. Before the first of the next harvests can be reaped, five months must elapse. In some countries, remaining food stocks will have been exhausted long before, when conditions of slow starvation which already exist will become actual famine. Moreover, in several European countries the harvest covers only a few months consumption.

The above map has been drawn to bring the threatened areas into relief. As may be seen at a glance, the British Isles, Germany, Italy and the Balkans, although all on rations, are not in danger. But the little, western democracies, always dependent on overseas supplies and now cut off by the blockade, are already on a semi-starvation basis.

Darkest, immediate spots in the picture are Belgium and Poland (the latter because of war devastation and partitioning). Here, actual famine already prevails. People are dying of sheer hunger. But Spain, France, Holland, Norway and Finland are not far behind. The above map will now darken quickly from month to month. The terrible food emergency in Europe, so long forecast by food experts, is now but a step away.

Spain may be able to get some help from the Argentine. In the case of the other countries, however, their main hope seems to be the United States. Like the Argentine, the United States not only holds large, surplus carryovers of foodstuffs of which it would be glad to get rid, but each one of these starving countries holds in this country frozen dollar balances ample to pay for the food they need. Belgium, alone, has several hundred million dollars in assets here. It is then primarily a question whether it can be arranged to pass this food through the blockade if, at the European end, it can be taken in control by a tight, neutral agency which will supervise its distribution to non-belligerent, civilian populations only—and a guarantee that it will not fall into other hands.

UNEMPLOYMENT DROPS SHARPLY DURING JUNE

SACRAMENTO — Californi's rising industrial tempo took new strides ahead during the month of June when placements by the California Department of Employment totaled 44,998 for the month, compared to 22,192 for June in 1940, an increase of 102.8 percent.

This announcement was made today by R. G. Wagenet director of the department, following his statement of last week that the state faces a severe shortage of skilled labor for national defense industries.

Proof of the dwindling supply of workers in the state in all occupations said Wagenet, is reflected in a 29.4 percent decrease in the department's active file, which consists of persons seeking jobs but not necessarily unemployed. The active file for June of this year totaled 343,390 persons, compared to 486,309 for the same month a year ago.

MISSION INVENTOR PERFECTS DIESEL AIRPLANE ENGINE

PATENTS APPLIED FOR LIGHTEST MOTOR EVER BUILT; USES 6c FUEL

By: GLADYS WILLIAMSON
in The Oakland Tribune.

MISSION SAN JOSE — Working in seclusion in a barn on a Mission San Jose Ranch for three years, Edwin M. Fisk, nationally-known pioneer of aviation, has been busy at workbench and lathe perfecting a new-type of airplane Diesel motor which is expected to add another chapter to the progress of airplane development.

Fisk has been flying and making planes since 1909, only a few years after the Wright brothers made their first successful flight. He opened Clover Field at Santa Monica before the city took it over. He organized the International Aircraft Company, in 1926. He established the first scheduled passenger air line in America with a twin-engine tri-plane which he built himself, running from Los Angeles to Bakersfield in 1922. Two years before that he established the speed record of 7 1-2 hours round trip from Los Angeles to San Francisco in 1920. His was the first ship built in America with a closed cockpit.

A full member of the Society of Automotive Engineers, Fisk taught himself engineering by "studying books" at home. He taught himself to fly in an old Curtiss-type pusher plane and has served as chief engineer, designer and official of several nationally-known concerns.

— Had Varied Career

Back in 1895, Fisk was a professional bicycle racer and ice-skate racer. He worked for the U. S. Government aboard the revenue cutter Perry (replaced by the Coast Guard today). He was at Fort Washington on the Potomac in the Spanish-American War and was a newspaper reporter on a labor paper and on the Erie Dispatch. He became an expert machinist, tool maker and die sinker and worked for Westinghouse and others. He was a gun maker for the Army and Navy—all this before 32. Then he married and settled down to aviation and his wife and family ("the same wife for 40 years and we've lived in 106 different houses—").

The motor on which Fisk has been working for the past five years is a five-cylinder air-cooled super-charger two cycle radial Diesel motor. Patents have been applied for and the company has been organized and incorporated at Los Angeles, where production is expected to begin within three months.

Included in the list of directors are Major Sam Metzger,at whose ranch at Mission San Jose Fisk has ben working on his invention; Walter McMillian, Oakland Flier and C. T. Gilliam, consulting engineer and president of the C. T. Gilliam & Associates, engineering consultants.

— Uses Cheap Fuel

Fisk claims his is the ligtest motor evr built, 80 pounds lighter than any other motor of the same horsepower, that it is more economical since it uses six-cent Diesel fuel instead of 22-cent gasoline, uses less gallons per hour, eliminates fire hazard because Diesel fuel won't catch on fire ("the only thing I ever feared in the air was fire," Fisk said. "Victims of crashes usually burn to death.")

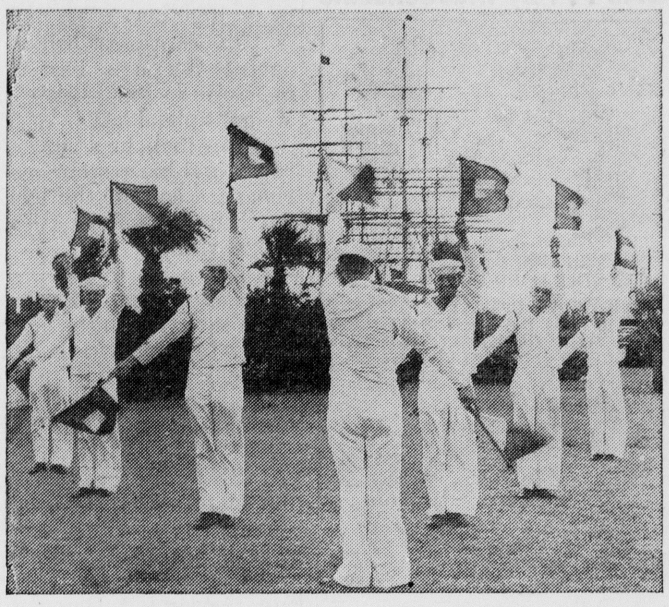
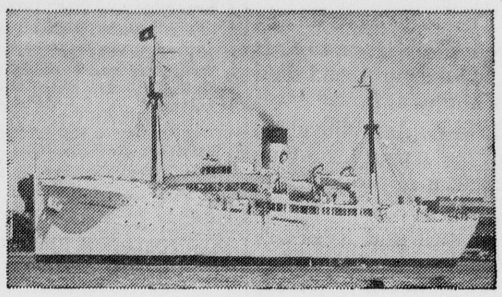
U. S. TRAINS YOUTHS FOR SEA





The United States Maritime Service is meeting the threatened shortage of skilled merchant seamen by training youths who have had no previous seagoing experience.

Young American citizens in good physical condition 18 to 23 years of age are being enrolled for a seven months' course of instruction in the duties of the deck, engineers, and stewards departments. Enrollees are paid $21.00 monthly; clothing, food, and quarters are furnished by the Government.

The training course qualifies these young men for jobs on American merchant vessels where pay starts at $72.50 a month with food and quarters furnished.

MASONIC HOME NEWS

By J. H. HEATH

Sunday, July 13 was another Flag Day at the Masonic Home in Decoto as by the grace of San Francisco Chapter, No. 18 National Sojourners a larger and more beau tiful flag was raised than has ever been displayd from the Home's 60 foot flag pole before.

And of additionalimportance to the event was the fact that the acquisition of the colors was made through the enterprise of Matron Virginia Meek Lord, who called at the office of Col. Jesse M. Whited, P. M., California Masonic Lodge, No. 1, in the Golden Gate Metropolis, and according to the Colonel, Matron Lord simply inquired where she might be able to purchase a flag for the Dcoto Home when he gallantly suggested that she leave the matter in his hands.

So the live wire Colonel got busy and as soon as he secured the emblem through the good officers of his Sojourners Chapter he arranged for the presence of the splendid San Mateo Sciots Band and San Mateo Pyramid No. 25, to assist the Sojourners in the presentation and the raising.

First section of the program was carried out in the Assembly hall, replacing the usual Sunday afternoon religious services. The officers and members of the Uniform Degree Corps marched into the hall, escorting Supt. J. R. Eubanks and Matron Lord. Matron Lord was seated on the right of Col. Whited, and Supt. Eubanks on his left. Also on the platform was the Sciot Band whose DeLuxe leader is Luther Penniman. Two other notables on the platform were P. G. Master Chas M. Wollenberg, president, and P. M., Chas. A. Adams, of the Board of Masonic Homes Trustees. Several members of the Corps were seated in chairs on the floor.

Salute to the platform flag was followed by prayer by Major C. Bradley, Chaplain U. S. M. C.

Two tenor solos were beautifully rendered by Capt, Chang Wah Lee, Military Service Lodge, No. 570, San Francisco. An address followed by Col. Frank Geere, Albert Pike Lodge, No. 303, (Kansas).

Presentation of the flag was made by Capt. California C. Mc Millian, U. S. N. Golden Gate lodge No. 30, San Francisco, and acceptance was made in impressive remarks by Mr. Wallenberg, in behalf of the Trustees and the Decoto Home.

During the ceremony patriotic selectionswere played by the band and by the talented pianist, Mrs. C. Crane of Niles, close friend of Matron Lord who was happy to respond to her request to serve as soloist and accompanist.

The vast audience was favored with a wonderful exhibition of baton twirling by petite Sciot Band Majorette Ruth Holton, 13 coming up. On August 26, 1940, at the National Encampment of the Veteran of Foreign Wars of the U. S. in Los Angeles, Ruth on her 12th. birthday won the national championship in Junior Baton twirling.

Second section of the flag presentation ceremony was staged at the foot of the historic three five seven steps opposite the flag pole, the Sciots band in the foreground, playing patriotic music.

The cheery presence of Army and Navy officers in regulation uniform, the Sciots with their fezs and the bandmen with their rich robes mixing among the crowd made a colorful sight.

The San Francisco Chapter of the Sojourners is the second largest Chapter in the U. S. — There are 85 Chapters with a membership of 9,000 its membership is restricted to Master Masons. Open to men who have served as commissioned officers in Army, Navy and Marine Corps, Coast Guard or Geodetic Survey, in peace or war.

The ties of friendship between San Mateo and the Masonic Home were further strengthened Thursday evening when San Mateo Lodge of Masons crossed the San Mateo Bridge bringing a candidate for conferring the second degree in Masonry in the Decoto Home Siminoff Temple.

The visiting delegation numbered 75 people, making the trip in sight seeing coaches and in private automobiles. While the Masons were putting over the degree in the Temple accompanying ladies put in the time at cards in the library.

Presiding at the station of Worshipful Master was George Deraimer, Junior Warden, while the Junior Warden Station was filled by Belton Rhodes.

Past Grand Master Chas. A. Adams veteran member of the board of Masonic Homes Trustees complimented the degree work Incidently Home folks were pleased to hear of the plans for a return visit of the lodge in September when a play will be presented in the Assembly hall.

COMIC SKATING TEAM HIGHLIGHTS THE ICE FOLLIES

You've heard about such famous combinations as Ham'n Eggs, Scotch 'n Soda, Cops 'n Robbers and Pen 'n Ink.

Now meet another noted combine, the comic skating team of Shipstad and Johnson, famed funnymen of the Ice Follies of 1941, now playing nightly at Winterland. in San Francisco.

Eddie Shipstad and Oscar Johnson are co-owners of the amazing figure skating carnival, with Roy Shipstad. All three skate in the ice extravaganza, as well as supervise the production and business end of the show.

Eddie and Oscar are the Damon and Pythias of the figure skating world. They have been skating together for twelve years and are partners on and off the ice.

Their careers began in St. Paul where the two were featured skaters with amateur skating carnivals. But skating was only a sideline. Both boys had regular jobs and took the leaves of absences from their daily work whenever a skating show appeared on the horizon .

Finally the day came when Eddie and Oscar decided to back to the limit their idea of a figure skating show. That was in 1936. Each year since then the Ice Follies has grown and reached additional heights of success.

Despite the demands placed on the two by the triple-duty of business, teaching and performing, Eddie and Oscar thrive on the busy diet.

They are acclaimed as the greatest comedy team ever developed in the United States. In the years of partnership the two have perfected the art of comedy on skates to the 'nth degree.

Shipstad and Johnson yesterday drew attention to the first Ice Follies matinee, which was held on this coming Saturday afternoon Saturday, July 12, at Winterland. Another matinee is scheduled for the following Saturday afternoon to accomodate the many out-of-towners who have made inquiry.

IN RESPECT TO OUR FLAG.

Millions of men have offered their lives to Our Country, have donned uniforms, have fought and died that our land may be free and our homes safe.

A certain combination of red, white and blue cloth has been developed as a symbol of our nation: the blue to represent faith, the white purity and the red, the blood which has been shed in its defense.

Yet many civilians, whose homes and lives are safe and comfortable are as indifferent to Our Flag, and to the men now in service, as cattle who care for nothing except the food they eat.

During the symbolic Fourth of July parade at Livermore many grown men and women sat on their lazy behinds and stuffed peanuts in their fat faces while Our Flag and men in uniform marched by.

Such bovine exhibitions gorge the souls of men who have made the supreme sacrifice of donning uniforms and putting up their hands and solemnly swearing "I will defend the flag and the constitution of the United States. . . etc."

These are war times, folks. Seems like every generation has to get its baptism of blood and sacrifice in order to be MADE to learn decent and proper respect for ideals, the American way of life, and other intangible things.

Indifferent civilians would be one-up on the situation if they would show the common respect due sacred things by at least standing at attention and uncovering their heads when Old Glory passes by.

Our flag, while literally only a piece of cloth, is a symbol of the blood, sweat and labor which, during the course of the years, has made our country the greatest nation on earth.

Give respect to Our Flag because of what it represents!

Fish, hunt and be merry, for tomorrow we may be at war! That, according to the grapevine, must be the modern interpretation of the old gag, for California resorts are doing a landoffice business. It looks like the best year(in the woods and at the beaches) since the early '20's.

HOW TO WIN A WAR WITHOUT SHOOTING

If America chose, says a spokesman intimately acquainted with Hitler, she could contribute mightily to the collapse of the Nazi war machine without ever sending a soldier.

America Could crack the war wide open, Leo Lania, the Austrian jounrnalist, declares, by using Hitler's own weapon—propaganda. Only America would fashion it into a boomerang of anti-Nazi propaganda and use it on the continent to consolidate millions of Nazi-haters into one close-knit group with a score to settle with dictatorship.

Commenting on "Hitler's Plan for America", Lania, who lived with Hitler, Hess and Goering in Munich and studied their fanatic operation minutely, stated that the average German believes implicitly that the United States is capable of any feat it sets out to accomplish; that its intervention alone won the last war for the Allies: that America will not fight for purposes of self-aggrandizement. And further, that the people of Germany would see clearly that they are fighting themselves and the world back into slavery of the dark ages, if the leverage of America's tremendous "moral credit" on the continent were brought into play.

Lania's plan is not so far-fetched as it may seem.

The propaganda weapon is Hitler's strongest arm and keenest strategy. He has used it to mesmerize his own people and to build his undermining fifth column in every country in the world, including this one. Communistic Russia discovered its effectiveness many years ago.

Americans would much prefer to mind their own business. But if a choice had to be made between training men to man machine guns on foreign soil or to man typewriters in a publicity bureau at home—the ease of the decision would belie the immensity of its world implications. — California Feature Service.

Take it easy! Blitz buggies are made for soldiers, not civilians.

HOW DO THEY KNOW?

Daily one reads wise pronouncements about American policy, Amrican behavior and American sentiment emanating from the nazi press bureau, written by egostical persons who have NEVER SET FOOT IN AMERICA.

Their weird incantations are about as inane as a treatise on "the New York Manner" written by an eskimo dreaming in his igloo.

In particular, the nazitalian stooge Gayda, always referred to by the European sources as that "authoritative mouthpiece", does spout the most drivelling vomit.

The best way to keep onesself from becoming infected by this foreign poison is to keep onesself filled with the sweetness and light which common life in America provides: then this nazi blight rolls off like water from the proverbial duck's back. — WW.

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP SHOWS THE AMERICAN SPIRIT AT ITS BEST.

Wendell Willkie, who invades California soon to speak at L. A. and S. F. for all-out aid to Britain (and to counteract Colonel Lindbergh's appearances) comes here, our spy advises, at the direct request of his recent political foe, President Roosevelt. That's what is known as the fortunes of war.

Also showing the magnanimity of the two broad-guage men, while revealing the essence of the American spirit: when you're fairly beaten accept defeat gracefully, then shake the hand of the victor, and carry on together.

By contrast: when Negro sprinters won races against the nazis' best athletes in the Olympic games in Berlin in 1936, Little Man Arolph couldn't take it. He got up and left.

But then, he's not man enough to sit in a dentist's chair, and his system is said to be infected with pyorrhoea. . . so half the world suffers because there's a devil in man's form at the head of the eastern half of the world.

People who persist in planning the longest possible auto trip in the shortest possible time are tempting fate to provide a trip for which no return tickets are sold.

GARLAND FOR GOVERNOR!

Speaker Gordon Garland of the Assembly, who out-maneuvered and out-slugged Culbert L. Olson during the past two legislative sessions, will take off shortly on a State-wide campaign tour to lay the groundwork for his gubernatorial campaign next year. Mr. Garland, a Democrat, has definitely decided to enter the fray against all contenders.

Your editor had the privilege of learning to know Mr. Garland quite well while working in Tulare County, where Mr. Garland still maintains his home on a family ranch near Woodlake.

Mr. Garland, in the usual sense of the word, is a good man. He is not well-to-do, he is just a plain Californian hard working like the rest of us, and if I had to name one out-standing characteristic of his make-up I would unhesitatingly say it was common sense.

And this is the kind of man we want at the head of our state government. He has been an assemblyman for two terms, and Speaker of the Assembly for one term. In this time he has doubless learned the ins and outs of our state government. With his practical eye he has no doubt seen many undesirable situations at the state capital which, as Governor, he would work to correct.

California is getting the break now, what with an enormous amount of defense orders, reduction in relief load and unemployment; and tax revenues exceeding disbursements.

With a capable businessman at the head of it, a man who is not beholden to any "powers that be", other than his individual conscience our State should enjoy a period of peaceful prosperity with Gordon Garland as Governor.

The boat isn't in yet, but he's making plans to catch it. For the sake of equitable state government, and an end to machine politics and favoritism, let's hope he does! — WW

PROMPTNESS IS A VIRTUE.

All the pleasure is taken out of doing business when customers dont pay their bills, but let them drag along month after month. A waste of time in bookkeeping and a waste of stamps on the repeated monthly statements. . . And here's an anomoly: lots of people are poor pay but not poor people. They're just careless or indifferent. — W.W.

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

By: Your Editor.

GOERING? — If reports are correct that Europe's Littlest Man has lost his temper and consigned Goering, No. 2 nazi, to a concentration camp for stating that the nazi air force was not equal to an invasion of Russia, then there are only four blood-letters left surrounding Hitler.

When Himmler crosses his chief, and Schacht, Von Ribbentrop and General Braushitsch are laid low by the ire of their boss, Little Adolph will be all alone. Wont he be sad? And lonesome?

The next few weeks, or months of Russian warfare will throw the scales one way or the other. At all events, there is less chance for an invasion of England now than there was last year. . . and fewer nazi troops left alive to attempt it. So the world of men breathes easier because Russia has to fight to regain her national soul.

Anyway, the British cartoonists can have some fun with Goering's successor as nazi air chief. . .His name is Milch!

ARITHMETIC — Let's see. The government is trying to sell about five billion dollars worth of defense bonds and is doing real well at it, considering just how much money a billion dollars is.

But the government has already authorized the expenditure of FORTY FOUR billion dollars worth of defense materials.

The heavy new taxes will raise a few more billions of dollars annually; still leaving 30 or 35 BILLIONS of dollars to be found some where. Soon more billions will be voted — unless something happens to Hitler in the meantime.

Independent of all this there is a national debt of about 50 billion hovering in the backbround; thus making Uncle Sam in debt to himself for about 90 billion dollars. or the nation's entire income in a boom year. like the present one.

After this emergency (and the Roosevelt Deal) passes. looks like Uncle Sam will have some plain and fancy juggling to do with his books if the nation is to remain solvent.

Of course we can. and probably will, write off our national debt as a mere book-keeping entry, as we have now written off the billions of bad debts remaining due us from the last war.

Hooray for the high finance and the theories of economics and political science! They only exist in your head. Hunger is real, and so are the people, and so is the 18 billion dollars in GOLD hidden in the earth at Fort Knox and other places.

Looks like we'll have to get back to the simple fundamentals of life after this world holocaust — and the erratic new deal — are replaced by peace and old fashioned horse sense.

CONTRIBUTED — According to the latest hecklers, the first Democrat in the world was christened Columbus. When he left Spain, he didn't know where he was going; when he landed on the other side of the Atlantic, he didn't know where he was; and when he got back to Spain, he did not know where he had been. And he did it all on borrowed money."

Has anyone an answer to this?

BULLY — The war news gets better every minute! The nazi hierarchy has found it has gotten in too deep, as predicted in these august colyums. Hitler is reported to have offered England a peace on "generous" terms. The English, after all their suffering will laugh in his face. The little Man has to be exterminated like an insect which has sucked the blood from the sore wounds of nations.

The Russian resistance is still: "surprising"! In fact, it is becoming increasingly so. Tuesday the Soviet pushed back the nazi 20 miles. This has not happened before and Adolph wont stand for reverses.. Behold: there are more Russians left than nazis. And the Soviet seem to know how to fight. As long as they do, we dont!

Goering, who told Hitler the nazi air machine was not strong enough since the losses in Greece, Crete and England, to wage successful war against Russia, was put in a concentration camp for his pains. Or so the report goes.

Who may say — perhaps in only a few months, or even weeks the nazi machine will blow up and crack wide open under the weight of its own diabolical wickedness?

Then the United States will have nothing to do for a lot of new factories and a lot of young men, now in uniform will feel sort of cheated and lost. — Let's hope things turn out that way, soon!

THIS NEWSPAPER

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

The California State Federation of labor, having abandoned its plan to referendum the bill knocking out the secondary boycott and "hot cargo", is preparing, nonetheless, to initiate a proposal which would give labor complete dominance over future sessions of the state Legislature.

Canny AFL leaders have admitted (but not for publication) that their abandonment of plans to referendom the Legislature'sact outlawing the secondary boycott was due to the fact that they were fearful of the results at the polls. And not wanting to risk a turndown from the voters, have decided to make war on the Legislature, instead of its enactments.

The proposal which the AFL will seek to qualify for the 1941 ballot by initiative petition is designed to give the cities complete control of the Legislature, to break rural control of the State Senate, which is now elected from rural districts, and to destroy those checks and balances that are so necessary to preserve a free democracy and protect minority groups within it.

With the Assembly already elected on a population basis, and therefor controlled by urban areas, the proposed labor initiative would abolish the present system under which the Senate is districted on a territorial basis, and would place the Senate likewise on a strict population bassis.

If adopted, this initiative amendment would virtually disenfranchise 51 rural counties in California, as 16 senators would be elected from Los Angeles county and 6 from the metropolitan counties of San Francisco and Alameda.

Thus, three meropolitan counties would elect 22 out of 40 senators, and the predominantly urban counties of San Diego, San Bernardino, Santa Clara andSacramento each entitled to one senator under the new proposal, would bring the total of urban county senators to 26. As a result, the 51 predominantly rural counties would elect only 14 senators, and each of the proposed senatorial districts would have a population of at least 173,000.

Under the existing plan of legislative representation, patterned after the Federal plan, the Senate is elected on a territorial basis, and the Assembly on a population basis establishing a balance of power be tween rural and city districts. The ruraly counties now elect 33 out of 40 members of the Senate, while the urban areas have complete con trol of the lower house.

It is interesting to note, in view of labor's insistence that California change its system of legislative election, that only 15 out of the 48 states now elect both upper and lower houses of their Legislature from districts of equal population. Except for Nebraska, which has a Unicameral Legislature, the remaining 32 states all elect one house or the other on a territorial basis.

California agriculture has much at stake on the outcome of this contest, for agriculture is still California's most imprtant industry, despite the fact that urban population now over-balances rural ppulation.

The raw materials which have made this state rich still come from rural counties; the wealth of this state still comes from rural lands. True, the raw products are finished in the cities; true the cities are marketing centers. But California's fundamental wealth lies in its rural districts.

Is it right to disenfranchise the rural areas of California which have brought this state to greatness? Is it right to permit the processing and distributing centers to dominate the producing areas? Is it right to permit the men who live off the fruits of the soil to dictate to the men who produce the products of the soil?

This writer is willing to leave the answers to those questions to the rank and file voters of California, fully confident of the results if they go to the polls informed as to the basic question at issue.

California agriculture has won its right to its place in the sun by battling all the forces of nature. It certainly won't give up that place simply because some of the handlers of its products wish to dominate the entire industry.

CALIFORNIA LUMBER CENSUS FOR 1940 ANNOUNCED

California's lumber cut is almost back to the boom days of '29 according to the preliminary 1940 statement of production of lumber, lath and shingles compiled by F. A. Gruenwald, special agent of the bureau of the census stationed at the California Forest and Range Experiment Station of the forest service in Berkeley.

Lumber production in 1940 showed an increase over 1939 of 272 and a half million board feet or over 16 percent. The total production for the year of 1,957,201,000 board feet was the largest in eleven years. Ponderosa pine formed 48.8 of the total production and showed an incease over 1939 of 13.9 per cent. The redwood region had almost an equal gain, 13 per cent, wihle sugar pine, the third most important lumber tree of the state, gained 17.1 per cent.

DRIVE SLOWER, SAVE GAS

A publicity agent has pointed out that if motorists uniformly reduced their driving speed 20 miles per hour, 4,500,000,000 gallons of gasoline would be saved annually. At 20c a gallon, retail price, that would leave $900,000,000 in the pockets of 50 million car owners in the United States, or $18 per motorist per year, or $1.50 per month per driver.

Think that over next time you find yourself driving 60. (State law is 45.) Try dropping to 40 or even 35 miles per hour and take note of the scenery ahead of you. Bet you discover objects you never saw before, even though you have raced over that same road a hundred times, but always at high speed and anxious to get there.

An Englishman once gave us hurrying Americans a comic poke when he asked: "What do you Americans do with all the time you save?"

You try and aswer it. Anyway, drive slower for economy — and safety's — and enjoyment and comfort's sake. — W.W.

THE JOY OF CREATING WITH ONE'S HANDS.

From 40 to 80 percent of the students at San Jose State College want "white collar" jobs when they graduate, according to Dean James C. De Voss. Yet but 3 percent of the employment market calls for white collar workers, the other 97 percent wanting skilled and unskilled manual workers.

Young people, especially boys, should learn the joy of creating something with their hands. Whether an article is made of wood or steel or any substance it is a thing of beauty and a joy forever to the worker who had a part in making it.

By contrast: entering figures in sets of books, or writing business letters or soliciting as a salesman is unlovely, unimaginative and tiringly monotonous.

A farmer who doesn't love to feel the fresh earth scour from the moldboard of his plow, a carpenter who doesn't get soul satisfaction out of building houses and hammering in each nail with unctious satisfaction, a mechanic who doesn't joy in feeling his lathe bite into a piece of steel is miscast in his trade. Or he has no soul. — WW

Many Diseases Carried From Animals to Man

Animals are carriers of certain diseases which can be transmitted to man despite the zoological gap between him and the animals in his immediate environment. Typhus. for example, broke out in Poland among Jewish exiles from Germany, writes William Wolf in the Scientific American. Tularemia, or rabbit fever, cases showed a sharp increase in the United States in 1938. Rocky Mountain spotted fever, having journeyed across the nation to the East, entrenched itself more firmly in the Middle Atlantic states and caused a number of fatalities. More alarming was an epidemic of bubonic plague among rodents in the Far West, for this dreaded pestilence of the past is carried to man by bites from fleas which desert infected rats and squirrels.

These, plus endemic outbreaks of rabies, held the public's interest; but other diseases carried by animals and acquired by man are far more common and cause greater health and economic concern. It is estimated, for example, that 16,000,000 persons in this country are infected with trichinosis alone. This means that one out of every eight is a victim of this disease caused by a parasite found in pork—a staggering average which gives the United States the highest incidence among all nations. Bovine tuberculosis and undulant fever are among the other important animal-conveyed diseases, while the lesser ones pose their own health problems.

Man in the Iron Mask Still Puzzles Frenchmen

On the island of Ste. Marguerite, near Cannes on the French Riviera lives a great legend. Here it was that during the reign of Louis XIV, in this rock-bound monastery, rising out of the sea, one of the strangest mysteries of French history was lived out for 40 years by the "man in the iron mask," whose tragic identity still is unknown.

Treated with royal honor, in so far as his physical care was concerned, his face hidden behind a fitted iron mask that was never lifted, as a prisoner all those years this unknown man kept his lonely vigil on the sea until at last death set him free and he was taken to his grave.

Historians have never found the answer. Some have surmised that it was twin brother to the king . . . that it was Fouquet . . . that it was a royal betrayer . . . that it was a self-imposed penance . . . But no one knows. And mystery lovers go to Ste. Marguerite to wander through the apartments of the strange Unknown, and are fascinated by the tragic loneliness of his fate.

Blood Transfusions Age-Old

Blood transfusion is by no means a new development in science. References to it are found in ancient Egyptian and Greek writing and it is mentioned in the seventh book of Ovid. Denys, physician to Louis XIV, is usually credited with the first successful blood transfusion, June 15, 1667, when he transferred nine ounces of arterial blood from a sheep to a sufferer from repeated bleedings, and both survived. The operation was unpopular until modern science increased its safety. Formerly the clotting of blood resulted in fatal results in one-half the cases.—Medical Society of the State of New York.

NATIVE SONS LOSE FIRST LEAGUE GAME TO KNIGHTS

By: Eugene Pashote

NEWARK — The Native Sons of Washington Township, headed by manager Kenneth Ferry of Centerville, lost their first league game Thursday evening to Knights of Columbus, 4 to 3, in one of the biggest upsets in the league up to the present time. The second game Thursday evening also was an upset, when Kraftile, a second division club, handed the Woodmen of the World their second straight defeat of the week by a score of 8 to 5.

With the league going in to its seventh week of play this week, the Decoto Boosters Club is the only team in the league failing to win a game. Another upset last wek occurred when Occidental went on a hitting spree to defeat Westvaco by a score of 7 to3.

Albert Silveria of Warm Springs, president of the Softball Association, and a member of the Native Sons ball club, spent the last week vacationing at Lake Tahoe. We are wondering if Albert was notified immediately by his teamates of their first loss in the league.. Mr. Vorrhes, baseball coach at Washington Union High School, acted as manager of the grounds during Silveria's absence.

— LAST WEEK'S GAMES

Results of last week's games follow.

On Monday evening in the first game both teams forfeited as neither Central Chev. nor County Employees was able to place ten regular ballplayers on the field. This game will be consedered a non-league game or a practice game, and will not count as a win for County Employees, but as a loss for both clubs. The score was County Employees 4, Central Chev. 3.

In the second game Monday evening Kraftile, winners of the league in 1940, defeated the Decoto Boosters 7 to 5 and had the game won anyway when Decoto failed to put ten players on the field. It seems as though some of the players on the teams that played Monday evening had forgotten that the league resumed play once again after the layoff week on account of the holidays.

Tuesday evening: K. of C. 6, W. O. W. 3; Native Sons 9, Silver Dollar 5. In the second game Silver dollar made a good showing against the league leaders, Native Sons, as they lost the game by a four run margin. It is claimed by softball fans though, that this was the worst defense game that the league leaders ever played since the formation of the league this year.

— Occidental wins

Wednesday evening: Occidental 7, Westvaco 3; County Employees 23, Decoto Boosters 4. Telles allowed only two hits in the first game to upset Westvaco. Westvaco and Occidental are now tied for second place. The second game was another track meet when Decoto failed to win their first league game. Frank DeSalles for County Employees was the winning pitcher. Henry Vervais of the sheriff's office at Niles hit a home run for the winners to win a free pass to the Niles Theatre.

Thursday evening: K. of C. 4, Native Sons 3; Kraftile 8, W. O. W. 5. Both of these games were upsets, and it was surprising to see their outcomes. John Vierra for the winners had pitched shut-out ball until the seventh inning when Native Sons tried desperately to tie the game, but scored only three runs. The Kraftile Club, which has been having bad luck since the beginning of the league, went on a hitting spree in the second game to down the Woodmen by a three run margin. Even Artie Duarte, manager of the Woodmen, who also pitched couldn't stop the Kraftile club.

— Westvaco Heavy winner

Friday evening: Westvaco 13, Central Chevrolet 0 Silver Dollar 14, Wedgewood 2. "Lefty" Miller in the first game for the winners allowed only one basehit. James Laudenslager and "Lefty" Miller hit a home run for the winners. In the second game Manuel Sanchez for the losers hit a home run. All players hitting home runs are given a free pass to the Niles Theatre, which is very generous of Bill Helm, manager of the theatre.

Schedule for next week follows:

July 21 — Co. Employees vs. Occidental Wedgewood vs. Native Sons.

July 22—Central Chev. vs. Kraftile, Silver Dollar vs. Decoto Boosters.

July 23 — Co. Employees vs. Westvaco, Occidental vs. Wedgewood.

July 24 — Native Sons vs. W. O. W., Central Chev. vs. Decoto Boosters.

July 25 — Kraftile vs. Silver Dollar, Westvaco vs. K. of C.

Mr. Softball fan, the weather in the evening is getting warm again and its awfully lonesome to stay home at night, so plan to attend the next softball game at the High school from Monday through Friday evening of each week until the close of the league, Friday evening, August 15.
